

LEADED EXTERIOR ALUMINIUM WINDOWS

French Fab

Safety, ergonomy, airtightness.

Leaded exterior aluminium windows are designed and manufactured in FABRIX facilities in Poitiers (France).

This solution is used for rooms located on the ground or the upper floors, where natural light source is prioritized

An essential solution for interventional, traditional radiology or operating rooms

Our products are reliable solutions that meets your requirements

LEADED EXTERIOR WINDOWS WITH RECOGNIZED FUNCTIONALITY

Our exterior leaded windows are designed and manufactured in FABRIX facilities in Poitiers (France).

They are designed to fix snugly the exterior walls, allowing controlled comfort and increased safety

TECHNICAL FEATURES OF FABRIX EXTERIOR LEADED ALUMINIUM WINDOWS

- Frame of 65 mm or 75 mm with support flange
- Leaded double-glass
- Lead equivalence on request : 1 mm, 1,5 mm, 2 mm, 3 mm,
- Dimensions according to study : fixed or opening window (1 or 2 leaves),
- Outdoor installation on pre-frame
- Thermic performances : according to study
- Air permeability : according to study
- Acoustic performances : according to study,
- Resistance to wind pressure : according to study

OPTIONS

- Color of your choice for the aluminium profile.